

ZDHC - POLICY

Artistic Fabric and Garment Industries (Pvt.) Ltd. (AGI-DENIM) is responsible to ensure the Environmental Protection at each possible aspect. In pursuit of sustainable chemical consumption AGI-DENIM has formulated the ZDHC policy which is a well-grounded document that reflects the true commitment of Artistic Fabric and Garment Industries for the implementation of sustainable chemistry and best practices in the facility to protect consumers, workers and the natural environment.

- Artistic Fabric and Garment industry is committed to adopt and implement industry tools and resources.
- Artistic Fabric and Garment industry is committed to maintain an accurate and current Chemical Inventory List (CIL) and upon request, regularly share the CIL information through an approved chemicals management platform
- Artistic Fabric and Garment industry is committed to ensure that chemical formulations used at any stage meet at least Level 1 Conformance to the ZDHC Manufacturing Restricted Substances List (MRSL).
- Artistic Fabric and Garment industry is committed to test wastewater for all Conventional and MRSL Parameters per the ZDHC WWG twice-per-year and publish test results to the ZDHC Gateway
- Artistic Fabric and Garment industry is committed to test wastewater for all Conventional and MRSL Parameters per the ZDHC WWG twice-per-year and publish test results to the ZDHC Gateway
- AFGI communicate to supplier to provide MSDS, TDS, MRSL/RSL compliance certificates (supplier must not include any banned chemical in manufacturing for chemicals).
- AFGI is committed to ensure the compliance of RSL/MRSL by restricting/eliminating all 11 restricted substances from AFGI supply chain with the alliance of customers' specific requirements and chemical suppliers.
- AFGI cross verify the RSL/MRSL by internal and external testing's of products.
- AFGI ensures contingency plans are enact, if any deviation occurs in the chemical management system.
- AFGI is working on Zero Discharge of Hazardous Chemicals (ZDHC) and DETOX with collaborations of Buyers and chemical suppliers for eliminations/substitution/alternative chemicals of hazardous chemicals for sustainable products.
- Endure the Product and Operational Activities are complying with all applicable National and Local Laws and Regulations and all the other requirements from the customers.

Approved By: GM OPERATIONS